COMMUNITY BANK BREAKS GROUND ON NEW OPERATIONS CENTER

Carmichaels, PA – July 26, 2016. With the symbolic first cut of the spade, Community Bank, the bank subsidiary of CB Financial Services, Inc. (Nasdaq: CBFV), marked the official start of the construction of its new Operations Center in the EverGreene Technology Park, located in Waynesburg, PA. The construction of this new 22,500 square foot facility is another milestone in the 115 year history of Community Bank. “This investment in Greene County shows our commitment to our roots. Community Bank was founded 115 years ago as the First National Bank of Carmichaels. Today we honor our heritage by locating this state of the art facility in our home county”, said President and CEO, Pat McCune.

The name of the new facility will be the “Ralph J. Sommers, Jr. Operations Center”, named in honor of Community Bank’s Chairman of the Board, Ralph J. Sommers, Jr. The new Sommers Operation Center will house approximately 70 employees, now located in several facilities. Architects for the project are SASI Inc., Mark Viola, Susan Viola and Doug Baker. Contractor for the project is Nello Construction.

Accompanying this release is an artist rendition of the new Community Bank, Ralph J. Sommers Jr. Operations Center. In addition, pictured breaking ground with Chairman Ralph J. Sommers, Jr. is former Chairman Charles Baily, Sr., President Pat McCune and the Community Bank Board of Directors, Senator Bartolotta, Representative Snyder, Greene County Commissioners Zimmerman, Coder and Trader and GCID, Inc Executive Director Chappel.
